

Contents

Illustrations vii

Contributors ix

- 1 Introduction: *The Politics of Public Memory in Turkey
Esra Özyürek 1
- 2 Weaving Modernity, Commercializing Carpets: *Collective Memory and Contested Tradition in Örselli Village
Kimberly Hart 16
- 3 Stories in Three Dimensions: *Narratives of Nation and the Anatolian Civilizations Museum
Aslı Gür 40
- 4 Remembering a Nine-Thousand-Year-Old Site: *Presenting Çatalhöyük
Ayfer Bartu Candan 70
- 5 An Endless Death and an Eternal Mourning: *November 10 in Turkey
Nazlı Ökten 95
- 6 Public Memory as Political Battleground: *Islamist Subversions of Republican Nostalgia
Esra Özyürek 114

7

Memories of Violence, Memoirs of Nation: The 1915

Massacres and the Construction of Armenian Identity

Cihan Tuğal 138

8

Polyphony and Geographic Kinship in Anatolia: Framing

the Turkish-Greek Compulsory Population Exchange

Aslı İğsız 162

References 191

Index 211